safe and effective and is a vital addition to every child's medicine cabinet.

Kid-e-Kare Rubbing Oil – All children eventually get sick. The potent spice oils penetrate deep into the tissue and support rest and recovery when your child needs it most.

Kids Need Care – Kids need powerful sources of nutrition. That's how they can have perfect health. They also need spiritual guidance and love. It's all here in Kids Need Care, a breakthrough nutritional book for a healthy family, by Judy K. Gray, M.S., a noted nutritionist and the CEO and founder of North American Herb & Spice.
